The advertisement features a banner with the text "Keep up your loan payments" and "It can be well worth your while." Below this, there are two buttons: "PLAY VIDEO" and "GET CASH BACK". The background of the banner shows a group of people, including a man in a suit and a woman, smiling and giving thumbs up. Below the banner, the text "Sanlam Personal Loans" is displayed, followed by "Get a loan of up to R200 000 at a fixed interest rate. Contact us on +27 86 144 0044." A small paragraph of text follows, stating: "Whether you need money for unexpected expenses, a medical emergency, or to fund a specific project, Sanlam can offer you a fixed-rate personal loan according to your needs and circumstances. We are a responsible lender and will never lend you more than you can comfortably afford to repay." At the bottom, there is a link: "Read more about how good credit can work for you as part of your financial planning." Below the text, there are four circular icons representing different financial services: a sun, a gear, a person, and a hand holding a coin.

A representative example

Let's look at an illustrative example of a loan at an interest rate of 27.75% per annum: The loan amount is R50 000 plus a once-off initiation fee of R1 207.50 and a monthly admin fee of R69, over 72 months. This means that the total cost of the loan will be R110 594.54, which is a maximum Annual Percentage Rate (APR) of 30.98%.
